David Allen

Friday, June 18 • 1:30 p.m.

David Allen sings songs by Elvis, Tony Bennett and Sinatra along with many other great artists. His ability to sound like each vocalist is a truly wonderful gift.

The Wonderful World of Woody

Wednesday, June 23 • 2 p.m.

Woody plays guitar, saxophone, trumpet and piano, and performs some magic and juggling! And since the show is outside he's even bringing his flaming torches!

Lori Ronchak

Friday, June 25 • 7 p.m.

Lori Ronchak, a talented musician, presents an enchanting musical celebration of the hammered dulcimer, a melodic instrument that entertains and delights all audiences.

Teddy Bear Band

Tuesday, July 6 • 5 p.m.

The Teddy Bears provide lots of opportunities for EVERYBODY to join in the fun...so BYOTB (Bring Your Own Teddy Bear). Come for the music, stay for a free hot dog supper.

Mark Stillman

Friday, July 16 • 1:30 p.m.

Take a trip around the world with Mark Stillman, accordionist extraordinaire! This accomplished musician specializes in international ethnic music.

Dick Macko Band

Wednesday, July 28 • 1 p.m.

Bring your dancing shoes! You'll have a couple hours to move to the swinging tunes of local favorite Dick Macko and his four-piece band.

Bruce Cottrell

Friday, July 30 • 7 p.m.

Although pianist Bruce Cottrell has been blind from birth, he hasn't let his disability hold him back.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

The Mouldy Figs

Monday, August 2 • 6 p.m.

Back by popular demand! Like Mouldy (English spelling) Ripe Cheese and Wine, the Figs are mellow and play the good old time happy jazz and sing-alongs.

The Somewhat Dixieland Band

Friday, August 20 • 1:30 p.m.

The Somewhat Dixieland band plays standard New Orleans jazz tunes along with ragtime and others adapted to the Dixie style, hence the name "Somewhat" Dixie.

Mary Hall

Monday, August 23 • 2 p.m.

Celebrating 41 years as a professional entertainer and recording artist, talented musician Mary Hall possesses easy-listening vocals and a distinctive guitar technique.

The Squires Band

Friday, August 27 • 7 p.m.
